This course will examine controversies surrounding sexuality that are relevant in the US's political environment and will challenge students to self-reflect on their own intellectual, personal, and professional development that will guide their future.

Course Description:

Sexuality invokes many emotions in people which is why it is often the center of societal debates and politics, but views are often based on myths, stereotypes, and poor or fake research/media. Human personality is intrinsically linked with many aspects of sexuality from experiences, beliefs, identity, relationships, and societal pressures, but often people make decisions and judgements based on incomplete information. So how does sexuality influence a person, society, culture, and government? Most of the major societal controversies revolve around sexism/genderism, sexual violence, sex trade, and sexually transmitted infections (STIs). Generally, the people most affected are marginalized due to societal pressures and myths including poverty, access to health care, racial or ethnic minorities, and individuals that are non-heterosexual or non-gender conforming. This course examines these sexual controversies using a multi-disciplined approach garnered from anthropology, psychology, biology, and sociology. Major themes include identity, health, violence, and sexual commerce. Students will explore these themes through reflection and evaluation on their personal beliefs and behaviors, analysis of cultural, political, and judicial influences, and develop innovative ideas to disseminating relevant information to bust myths and stereotypes that limit society. How might we impact the current methods moving forward in resolving issues and offering better resources to those caught in the crossfire? The goal of this course is for engagement with people from all sides of the debates and innovate new means for correct knowledge to be distributed to the public.

Course Delivery:

This class will be in-person on campus. Lectures introduce the core knowledge to each theme of the course to lay foundation for future discussions and research. Discussions introduce qualitative and quantitative analyses and more experiential learning discussing real-life situations. Group activities will be doing active field research and will challenge students to discover and synthesize information outside of the classroom. These surveys will then be used to inform the development of innovative ideas to disseminating relevant information to campus and ultimately the public. To get hands-on engagement with people who are immersed in these sexual issues and suffering from inequality and ignorance, guest speakers will be organized, which includes a representative(s) from a local LGBT+ group, Planned Parenthood, sex worker organization (SWOPbehindbars), and UF STRIVE.

Guest lectures: Quest 2 courses include experiential learning components, engaging students with a UF or community resource. This course will have visits from services/people related to course topics. These active components will help students become familiar with campus or community resources and the experiences of people immersed in the issues. For example, meeting with the local LGBT+ group will help enlighten the students to their issues and their needs.

Grading: Letter grades assigned based on total percent of points according to normal grade scale system. A = 93.0 or above; A- = 90-92.9; B+ = 87-89.9; B = 83-86.9; B- = 80-82.9; C+ = 77-79.9; C = 73-76.9; C- = 70-72.9; D+ = 67-69.9; D = 63-66.9; D- = 60-62.9; E = <59.9 A minimum grade of C is required for general education credit. See UF's Grading policy: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/

Project = 30%

Student-led discussion (Resource gathering) (each 10 points, 20 pts total)

Mission Statement (10 pts)

Methods and survey questions (10pts)

Synthesis (20pts)

Presentation (30pts)

Individual effort and participation (10pts)

Individual reports = 30%

Report on Resource Gathering (10pts each, 20 points total)

Reflection journals (four at 10pts each, 40pts total)

Group Role Assessment (10pts)

Class participation = 10%

Attendance (1 point per class) – Allowed two unexcused absences (not during resource gathering and presentation weeks)

Discussion participation of readings/videos (2 points per discussion, 11 discussions)

Student-led discussion participation (2 pts for each topic discussion)

Critical Thinking Essays (exams) = 30% (each 15%)

Assignment Descriptions

NOTE - All writing should be 12pt font, 1" margins, and double-spaced and follow APA writing style and citation and reference formatting (https://www.apastyle.org/). Font should be a standard font (e.g. Times New Roman).

On the due date (or before), you must upload an electronic version of various components (in Microsoft Office format - .doc/.ppt) to the Canvas course page (https://elearning.ufl.edu/), where it will be run through Turnitin. If there is any evidence of plagiarism, you forfeit credit towards the writing requirement, receive a grade of zero for the assignment, and be reported to Student Judicial Affairs.

Assignments will lose five percentage points for each day they are late (including weekends and holidays). An assignment is considered late if it is not submitted electronically by 11:59 p.m. on the due date. Each additional 24 hours beyond that point will automatically reduce the maximum possible grade for the assignment by five percent. No submissions will be accepted after a week from the deadline without arranged accommodation with Dr. Bogart.

Project: Students will work on an one of the assigned topics in a group setting.

- o gender identity and sexual orientation inequality
- sexually transmitted infections (STIs)
- sexual violence (assault, abuse, harassment)
- o commercial sex trade

*Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

- Group roles will be assigned and rotated every other week
  - Facilitator: Moderates team discussion, keeps the group on task, and distributes work.
  - Recorder: Takes notes summarizing team discussions and decisions, and keeps all necessary records.
  - Reporter: Serves as group spokesperson to the class or instructor, summarizing the group's activities and/or conclusions.
  - Timekeeper: Keeps the group aware of time constraints and deadlines and makes sure meetings start on time. Facilitates organizing schedules and setting meeting times
  - Sharer: Ensures all team members have access to any materials gathered or collaborative assignments and sets deadlines to have these provided to the rest of the group
  - Wildcard: Assumes the role of any missing member and fills in wherever needed.
- Student-led discussion (Resource gathering): your group will find two published (primary or secondary) peer-reviewed resources for each guided discussion question (questions will be discussed on two different days). The resources will be provided to the rest of the class in advance of the set discussion. Each group will lead a class discussion over the two readings individuals in group must each have a turn. Grades will be based on the resources chosen, discussion leadership, and answering the question. (instructions/rubric will be provided)
  - Advances SLOs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6
  - 1. Who are affected and how? What resources are available to those affected?
  - 2. What are the current societal and governmental views and policies?
- Mission Statement (<1 page): A clear, concise, and useful description of the aims for the project. Describe the purpose of the study and what you aim to achieve in a paragraph (no longer than half a page).</li>
  - Advances SLOs 1, 6
- Methods and survey questions (1-3 pages): construct the main empirical questions and hypotheses and describe the methods on how you will carry out the study with proposed survey questions.
  - Advances SLOs 1
- Synthesis (~3-5 pages): Write up the results of the study and analyze the data. Graphs and tables are needed to represent the data. Write synthesis discussion of what the results represent and how they relate to other similar studies that have been published.
  - Advances SLOs 2, 3, 4, 5, 6
- Presentation (10-15 min): Students will present to the class their findings and will recommend a method for informing peers/public and possible services to aid in the topic's discourse on campus and in Gainesville.
  - Advances SLOs 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7
- Individual effort and participation (2 forms): Every group member will fill out a form indicating What contributions they made to the group and rate their effort and the group dynamic. Each member will also fill out an anonymous review to score other group member's participation.

Advances SLO 7

Individual reports

- Report on Resource Gathering (two 1-2 page reports): Students must write 1-2 pages answering each of the guided questions from 'Student-led discussions (Resource gathering)' using four peer-reviewed resources (can include the two used for discussion). Students must reflect on what they learned to help inform their research.
  - Advances SLOs 1-7
- Reflection journals (four at 1-2 pages each): Students will write a reflection on each major theme using the class materials (books and articles), videos, and class visits.
  - Advances SLOs 2-4, 6, 7
- Group Role Assessment: write a 1-page assessment of the group roles you had. Describe your experiences, challenges, achievements, and what you liked and disliked.
  - Advances SLO 7

Class participation:

- Participation credit will be recorded as follows
  - o 0.5pts for listening and following along, but did not participate in discussion
  - o 1pt prepared and asked or answered a thoughtful question
  - 2pts contributed in multiple ways to the discussion
- Students will be graded on their class participation discussing an assigned reading
  - Advances SLOs 1, 3, 4, 6
- Students will be graded on their participation during student-led discussions from 'Resource gathering' assignments. Students will only be graded on their participation in the discussions from their non-assigned topics.
  - Advances SLOs 1, 3, 4, 6

Critical Thinking Essay questions (exams):

- Due during midterm and final exam time periods. There will be 2-4 essay questions that students will have to complete, each about a page answer in length. The questions will combine elements previously discussed that promote a thoughtful interpretation of the content, readings, and discussions but in a situation not previously discussed. Students will need to draw on resources, books, experiences, and visits to answer questions.
  - Advances SLOs 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7

Extra Credit Opportunities:

EC opportunities will be offered

**NOTE: Each student in the group will be graded individually on their individual effort and participation (10pts). Presentation grades will vary by student based on verbal and non-verbal scores (out of 8 points), but the scores for project content will remain the same throughout the group unless an issue arises about someone's effort. All other components of the project will be graded similarly among group members unless a group speaks with the professor about lack of effort. This will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and dependent on whether the majority of the group takes issue.**

Make-up and Late Work: Make-up/late assignments will not be scheduled unless demonstrated illness, serious emergency, or major scheduling conflict with proof provided to the Instructor. An official letter, following university procedures, is expected prior to the due date so that a make-up can be arranged. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor and inform them of the emergency within a 24-hour period following the missed class. E-mails are strongly encouraged.

Late assignments/exams without an excuse will be reduced 5% per day late. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

Accommodation

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester. Ideally, student accommodation should be communicated to the Instructor before the end of the first month of the term).

Online Materials and Communication:

- You are responsible for materials posted on E-Learning (Canvas) for this class at https://elearning.ufl.edu/, including required readings, announcements, details on assignments, and other supplementary material.
  - o Canvas technical support available at https://elearning.ufl.edu/student-help-fags/.
- The instructor uses email to make general class announcements or to contact you directly about your work. You are responsible for checking your official UF email regularly. There are no allowances for students who fail to read their email announcements or whose inboxes are full at the time an announcement is sent.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To "publish" means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Course Evaluations - GatorEvals

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Student Conduct and Academic Honesty and Integrity

Cheating, copying other's work, plagiarism, and other acts of academic misconduct are unethical. UF and the instructor consider these to be serious offenses.

Cell phones should be off or in silent mode Laptops are permitted ONLY for notetaking

use of social media, email, or non-course

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/students/student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Harassment and Discrimination

"Harassment" is defined as conduct that (1) is of any type (written, oral, graphic, or physical), (2) is directed towards or against a person because of their personal status (i.e., race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, political affiliation, national origin, age, disability, marital status, pregnancy or others), and that (3) unreasonably interferes with the individual's work, education, or participation in activities or programs at UF or creates a working or learning environment that a reasonable person would find threatening. "Discrimination" is defined as a conduct that (1) adversely affects any aspect of an individual's employment, education, or participation in activities or programs at UF, and (2) is based on one or more

"The University of Florida has zero tolerance for sexual discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic abuse or stalking." https://titleix.ufl.edu/ personal characteristics listed above. Any student who feels that his/her rights have been violated may speak to the instructor who will direct the complaint through the proper university channels, or the student may directly file a complaint with UF Department of Human Resources.

Gender Equity Statement

The University of Florida is committed to providing a safe, productive learning environment free of sex-based discrimination and misconduct. Sex-based discrimination, sexual misconduct (including sexual harassment, sexual assault, and any other nonconsensual behavior of a sexual nature), and relationship violence are antithetical to the university's mission and values, violate university policies, and may also violate federal and state law. If you or someone you know has experienced sex-based discrimination, sexual violence, and/or harassment by any member of the university community, please visit www.titleix.ufl.edu to access information about university support and resources. If you would like to make a report please contact UF's Title IX Coordinator at (352) 275-1242 or by e-mail at inform@titleix.ufl.edu. Additionally, reports can be made through the Online Portal

Quest 2 and Gen Ed Descriptions and Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

Quest 2 Description: Quest 2 courses provide an opportunity for students to engage in thought-provoking Gen Ed coursework that builds on and expands their Quest 1 experience with the Arts and Humanities. If courses in Quest 1 ask "What does it mean?," those in Quest 2 ask "What can we do?" Thus, rather than offer introductory/survey courses to specific fields, Quest 2 courses invite students to encounter important real-world issues that cut across disciplines and introduce scientific methods and discourse for students to become familiar with the ways that data, methods, and tools from diverse fields can be brought to bear on pressing questions facing human societies and/or the planet today. To approach these questions, Quest 2 courses foreground active learning opportunities and help students develop concrete skills in communication and critical thinking. Students are expected to create arguments, draw on evidence, and articulate ideas according to the norms of the fields of study covered in the course, and they are assessed accordingly. In addition, Quest 2 seeks to inspire students to engage with Social and/or Biophysical Sciences directly: the best classes invite participation in experiential learning activities at relevant sites around the UF campus and in the greater Gainesville community. Quest 2 SLOs:

- Identify, describe, and explain the cross-disciplinary dimensions of a pressing societal issue or challenge as represented by the social sciences and/or biophysical sciences incorporated into the course. (Content)
- Critically analyze quantitative or qualitative data appropriate for informing an approach, policy, or praxis that addresses some dimension of an important societal issue or challenge. (Critical Thinking)
- Develop and present, in terms accessible to an educated public, clear and effective responses to proposed approaches, policies, or practices that address important societal issues or challenges (Communication)
- Connect course content with critical reflection on their intellectual, personal, and professional development at UF and beyond. (Connection)
- Social and Behavioral Sciences (S) Description: Social and behavioral science courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and underlying theory or methodologies used in the social and behavioral sciences. Students will learn to identify, describe and explain social institutions, structures or processes. These courses emphasize the effective application of accepted problem-solving techniques. Students will apply formal and informal qualitative or quantitative analysis to examine the processes and means by which individuals make personal and group decisions, as well as the evaluation of opinions, outcomes or human behavior. Students are expected to assess and analyze ethical perspectives in individual and societal decisions.

Social and Behavioral Sciences SLOs:

- Identify, describe, and explain key themes, principles, and terminology; the history, theory and/or methodologies used; and social institutions, structures and processes (Content).
- Apply formal and informal qualitative or quantitative analysis effectively to examine the processes and means by which individuals make personal and group decisions.
   Assess and analyze ethical perspectives in individual and societal decisions (Critical Thinking).
- Communicate knowledge, thoughts and reasoning clearly and effectively (Communication).
- Diversity (D) Description: In Diversity courses, students examine the historical processes and contemporary experiences characterizing social and cultural differences within the United States. Students engage with diversity as a dynamic concept related to human differences and their intersections, such as (but not limited to) race, gender identity, class, ethnicity, religion, age, sexual orientation, and (dis)abilities. Students critically analyze and evaluate how social inequities are constructed and affect the opportunities and constraints across the US population. Students analyze and reflect on the ways in which cultures and beliefs mediate their own and other people's understandings of themselves and an increasingly diverse U.S. society.
