

Introduction to Philosophy

NOTE: it is your responsibility to read this document carefully. This is an agreement between you and your instructor. If you email me about something that is obviously stated in the syllabus, you will either receive no answer or I will reply, simply, "Read the syllabus!" However, if you read the syllabus and you still do not have an answer, then email me with your question.

2 Course Goals

This course satisfies a General Education Requirement (Humanities). Humanities courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and theory or methodologies used within a humanities discipline or the humanities in general. Students will learn to identify and to analyze the key elements, biases and influences that shape thought. These courses emphasize clear and effective analysis and approach issues and problems from multiple perspectives.

A minimum grade of C is required for general education credit.

We will accomplish these objectives by introducing students to the main topics of Western Philosophy. We will do this by presenting students with classical readings touching on some of the core questions in this tradition. A further goal is to introduce students to the methods and tools used in this literature. In particular, students will learn how to present and evaluate philosophical and non-philosophical arguments.

The General Education Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) describe the knowledge, skills and attitudes that students are expected to acquire while completing a General Education course at the University of Florida. The SLOs fall into three categories: content, communication and critical thinking.

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Category	Institutional Definition	Institutional SLO
Content	Content is knowledge of the terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used within the subject area.	Students demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used within the subject area.
Critical Thinking	Critical thinking is characterized by the comprehensive analysis of issues, ideas, and evidence before accepting or formulating an opinion or conclusion.	Students carefully and logically analyze information from multiple perspectives and develop reasoned solutions to problems within the subject area.
Communication	Communication is the development and expression of ideas in written and oral forms.	Students clearly and effectively communicate knowledge, ideas, and reasoning in written or oral forms appropriate to the subject area.

This course also satisfies a 6.000 word Writing Requirement. This requirement ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning. Course grades have two components. To receive writing requirement credit, a student must receive a grade of C or higher and a satisfactory completion of the writing component of the course. To that end, instructor and teaching assistants will evaluate and provide feedback on all of the student's written assignments with respect to grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization

3 Textbook

There is no required textbook for this course. All readings are available through Canvas.

Recommended Reading

1. A terrific guide to general writing rules is Strunk and White's 'The Elements of Style.' The first edition is available online for free: <http://www.bartleby.com/141/>.
2. A more recent style manual is Steven Pinker's 'Sense of Style: The Thinking Person's Guide to Writing in the 21st Century.' The book can be found anywhere books are sold.
3. The philosopher Jim Pryor (UNC) has his suggestions on how to read philosophy freely available here; he has also published suggestions on how to write philosophy here.

4 Attendance and Classroom Policies

Students are expected to attend class and to have done all assigned reading in advance. Failure to do so will adversely affect students' ability to perform well in this course.

Attendance is required (see below for details) and expected.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

- <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Our class sessions may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. However, the recording will not be shared unless you have a valid excuse. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who unmute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voice recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the 'chat' feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials by students or any other party is prohibited.

This course will NOT be synchronously taught on Zoom.

5 Course Requirements

Six different instruments will be used in order to measure student progress through the course. The name of each instrument, and the relative weight each of them carries in determining your final grade is the following; a brief description of each instrument follows.

Assignment	Total Number	% of Course Grade
Short Writing Assignments	3	30%
Writing Exercises	3	30%
Quizzes	5	10%
Presentation	1	15%
Attendance	32	15%

5.1 Written Work (SWAs and WEs)

Writing Assignments are assessed on several different factors (the rubric can be found at the end of this document):

1. Comprehension: whether you understand accurately the material you are writing about.
2. Clarity: whether you write in a way that can be understood by others, avoids ambiguity, and is focused and organized.
3. Mechanics: whether you avoid grammatical or formal errors.
4. Thesis Support: whether you provide good reasons to believe the thesis you advance in your essay.
5. Defense against Objections: whether you anticipate how someone might object to what you say and defend it against those objections.

When grades are released for your SWAs and WEs, you will probably look first to see what grade you received. That is understandable. But you will be doing yourself no favors if you don't also look at the other feedback on your work, since that is what you will learn from.

When you review your graded work, you will always find:

1. The grade and the specific marks on the rubric.
2. A general comment on your performance.

More often than not, you will also find:

3. In-text or inline comments on the text itself.

Make sure you read that feedback; we provide it so as to enable you to improve your writing skills.

5.1.1 Short Writing Assignments (SWAs)

There will be three (3) short (1500 words) writing assignments. Each SWA will either ask you to present someone else's argument in your own words, or they will ask you to evaluate someone else's argument. The lowest grade will be dropped.

No outside readings will be required for SWAs. A sample SWA is available on Canvas.

Students must complete ALL SWAs in order to satisfy the Writing Requirement for the course.

5.1.2 Writing Exercises (WEs)

Students will write three (3) short essays (500 words) and sample answers will be analyzed in class anonymously (i.e., without the instructor revealing who wrote them).

Students must complete ALL WEs in order to satisfy the Writing Requirement for the course.

5.1.3 Basic Writing Assistance

You may find it helpful to use the influential guide by Strunk and White, The Elements of Style, available free online at www.bartleby.com/141/.

Another very useful resource is Purdue University's Online Writing Lab, also known as the 'OWL.' It is especially good for getting detailed information on how to cite sources properly. You can find it at owl.english.purdue.edu/.

UF has a dedicate writing program with a 'writing studio' that is intended to provide students with several resources for improving their writing. The site includes several resources, including links to the OWL site just mentioned and other items. You can find that site at writing.ufl.edu/writing-studio/.

The writing program provides assistance with writing for UF students, including distance students who are pursuing online-only courses. You can login to tutortrac.clas.ufl.edu/ to make arrangements to meet with a tutor. We must warn you, however, that while those tutors are surely good at helping you avoid certain kinds of problems, many writing tutors are not familiar with writing philosophy papers. What counts as a good paper for, say, an English class might not count as a good paper for philosophy. In philosophy, clear structure and explicit argumentation is at a premium. If you do meet with a tutor, you would be well advised to share with the tutor the sample argumentative essay so that he or she knows what sort of paper is needed in this class.

5.1.4 Outside Readings

No outside readings are required for the completion of SWAs or WEs. However, if you do plan to use an outside reading, you MUST check with your instructor or TA whether the particular reading you have in mind is an appropriate source. There are ONLY TWO EXCEPTIONS to this rule:

1. The Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy;
2. The Internet Encyclopedia of Philosophy.

If you do not follow these instructions on the use of outside readings, you risk seriously harming your grade.

5.2 Quizzes

There will be an unspecified number of surprise quizzes during discussion sections. They are designed to check your understanding of the materials. Each quiz will consist of three to five multiple choice questions. Quizzes are 'open notes' and you are encouraged to consult the readings and/or your notes when you take them. Questions will typically cover the material discussed in lectures that week. We will keep only your three best grades.

5.3 Presentation

The class will be divided into small groups of 2-3 students. Groups will be responsible for preparing a presentation on an assigned topic. The goal is for students to articulate and defend an answer (thesis) to a specific question on an assigned topic.

5.4 Attendance

Starting Wednesday 8/30 (after the drop/add period) attendance will be taken and expected. During lectures, attendance will be taken using the iClicker system. For information on this system, please see: <https://classrooms.at.ufl.edu/classroom-technology/iclicker-response-system/> .

You will use the iClicker Student app, either on a smartphone or a computer. You must register your clicker as soon as possible, but certainly before 8/30.

Everybody has two free, no-questions-asked absences. After that every unjustified absence will cost you 10% of your attendance grade. More than three unjustified absences will ear you a zero attendance grade.

Attendance will be expected but not required before and during the add/drop period. This will give everyone time to install and familiarize themselves with the iClicker application.

We will test the iClicker application in the second week of the semester. This will allow you to check your clicker is working properly. At all times during the semester, it is your responsibility to make sure that you have your clicker with you, and that it is working properly.

6 Grade Scale

See UF grading policies for assigning grade points at:

- <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>.

	Grade Scale	Grade Value
A	100 - 93	4.00
A-	92 - 90	3.67
B+	89 - 86	3.33
B	85 - 82	3.00
B-	81 - 79	2.67
C+	78 - 75	2.33
C	75 - 72	2.00
C-	71 - 69	1.67
D+	68 - 66	1.33
D	65 - 62	1.00
D-	61 - 60	0.67
E	59 - 0	0.00

7 Academic Honesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge, which states, 'We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: 'On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.' The Honor Code

- <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>

specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class. Plagiarism on any assignment will automatically result in a grade of 'E' for the course. Plagiarism is defined in the University of Florida's Student Honor Code as follows: 'A student shall not represent as the student's own work all or any portion of the work of another. Plagiarism includes (but is not limited to): a. Quoting oral or written materials, whether published or unpublished, without proper attribution. b. Submitting a document or assignment which in whole or in part is identical or substantially identical to a document or assignment not authored by the student.' Students found guilty of academic misconduct will be prosecuted in accordance with the procedures specified in the UF honesty policy.

8 Students with disabilities

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drp>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation.

9 Online course evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester. Students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.

10 Office Hours

I strongly encourage you to set up a meeting to discuss anything related to the course. Rodrigo will hold office hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays 3:00pm – 4:30pm (or by appointment via rodrigo.borges@ufl.edu).

11 Technical Issues

Please, direct any questions about technical issues you might have to UF Helpdesk. The website is <https://helpdesk.ufl.edu/>. You may also call them at 352 392 4357.
